Climate Hustle

Tuesday, September 19—3:00 pm

Climate Hustle reveals the history of climate scares, examines the science on both sides of the debate, digs into the politics and media hype surrounding the issue, shows how global warming has become a new religion for alarmists, and explains the impact the global warming agenda will have on people in America and around the world.

From the Ashes

Tuesday, October 10th—3:00 pm

A film for the times capturing the struggle of localities across the U.S. as they fight the battle of protecting their livelihood and resources in the wake of a new administration pulling for the revival of the coal industry. An overwhelming response to the questions of whether or not coal has a future in America, how far we will go to give it life, and what price do we pay for it's legacy.

Time to Choose

Tuesday, November 21—3:00 pm

A 2015 film examining the already engineered solutions to climate change. This film looks at the individuals who are already working to save our planet. It provides an optimistic view of the climate crisis that we face by highlighting the many opportunities that we have to do something about it.
